

1. Draw the tables including data that you need to store this order in a relational database.

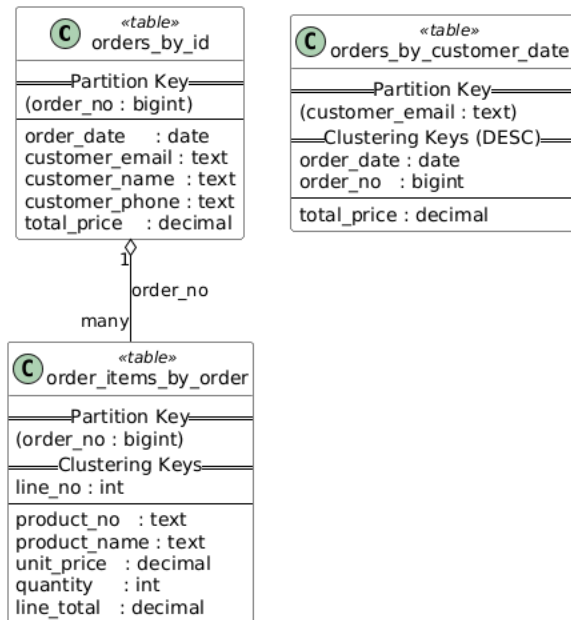

2. Draw the collections including data that you need to store this order in a mongo database.

MongoDB (orders collection with embedded items & customer)

3. Draw the tables including data that you need to store this order in a cassandra database.

4. Draw the database structure including data that you need to store this order in a neo4j database.

